

OSHA #7410 - VIRTUAL Managing

Start Date: 4/12/2021 7:30 AM

End Date: 4/12/2021 4:00 PM

Click here for additional date options

NOTE:

This course will be a Live Online Virtual Classroom training course. It will be alive, interactive, virtual classroom delivered right to your computer via the Internet. The instructor will teach live and you will be required to actively participate. You must have web camera and audio capabilities, and your camera must be turned on the entire class time. Access via a smartphone is not allowed.

The OSHA #7410 - Managing Excavation Hazards course is designed to teach the roles and responsibilities of the employer to assign a competent person to the excavation site and arm that person with the knowledge to perform the work properly. Topics include the understanding and application of definitions relating to OSHA's Excavation Standard (Subpart P), excavation hazards and control measures, soil analysis techniques, protective system requirements and emergency response. At the conclusion of this course, the participant will understand the importance and duties of a competent person towards excavation work and will have the knowledge and skills that are required to perform those duties.

Upon course completion students will have the ability to

State the importance and duties of a competent person in excavation work

Identify the skills required to be

Perform the duties of a competent person in excavation work

Language: English

Prerequisites : None

Minimum Class Size : 3

Maximum Class Size: 40

Course Length: 1 day